Bunge Closes Agreement to Acquire Grain Elevator Assets of North West Terminal Ltd.

Regina, Saskatchewan – Oct. 30, 2025 – Bunge has successfully closed its purchase agreement for the grain elevator assets of North West Terminal Ltd. (NWT) near Unity, SK. The agreement, originally announced on Sept. 22, 2025, includes the grain elevator and associated storage assets. The fermentation and distillation facility will continue to be operated by NWT.

NWT's grain facility has total storage capacity of 63,000 metric tonnes, making it one of the largest grain handling facilities in Western Canada. It has full cleaning and drying capabilities, and is serviced by both CPKC and CN, Canada's two largest railways.

"We're excited to strengthen our presence in west central Saskatchewan and provide customers with the high level of service they expect from a grain industry leader like Bunge," said Kyle Jeworski, head of Bunge in Canada. "We plan to make the necessary investments at this location to ensure it operates smoothly and efficiently well into the future and look forward to being an active member in the region as a leading employer and contributor to community investment initiatives."
